OPIS PRODUKTU

Easy to set up and use, this HD video conferencing system offers a powerful yet affordable solution for everyday business communications.

The compact, High Definition CMOS camera attaches neatly to a wide range of display screens, minimising disruption to your existing office AV infrastructure. Enjoy smooth, crisp HD video plus clear sound from the integrated microphone. Enrich conferences with shared presentations from the screen of your PC.

Optional PCSA-MCG80 MCU software makes multi-point conferences just as simple. The PCS-XA80 can be configured to communicate with up to five remote sites via either IP or ISDN connections.

Everything else is included: video codec unit, HDMI cable for connecting to a display/monitor and remote commander for easy one-touch dialling from your contacts list.

NB: Display is not included.
